Judge: Professor Bruce E. Smith

The Judge for our Iowa Artists State Show will be Bruce E. Smith, Professor Emeritus, Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa. Professor Smith graduated from Michigan State University with a B.F.A. degree in fine arts with a teacher certification. After teaching art to diversified students in many states, he arrived in Ames, Iowa in 1974.

He exhibited in the Des Moines Art Center every year from 1975 through 1988 and won awards there and at various other Shows. A few of Professor Smith favorite quotes says

- "Don't stand in the doorway, don't block up the Hall, for the times they are a changing." Van Morrison
- "It Ain't Why, Why, Why, It Just Is..."
- "The sun shines every day, but it might shine on you!"

Directions to the location:

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE – JANUARY 2019

By Jean Jeanine Strodtman

Hello Everyone. Please know that I have been a member of Iowa Artists since 1974 and this has been one of the most fulfilling of those years. I met Board members who are so supportive, I organized a Workshop at Cloverwoods (formerly The 4-H Camp) and we all had fun and learned from our 2018 State Show Judge, Caryn Kepford. I had not done this since 1988 and 1989, but do plan on doing it again this coming summer. Keep a week-end in July or August open, date will be definite by the State Show. We had a great Board meeting in October and I got acquainted with some very dedicated artists who want

Iowa Artists to continue and grow. I decided to go more public and had a showing of my artwork at a Coffee Shop in Ames. Was a very satisfying Show, both in ego and financial. Also got a painting accepted at The Heritage Museum in Des Moines. Thanks to our Membership chairman, Flo Hayes who sends out notices of places we may want to know about. She is doing such a good job.

The Area Regional Shows are being planned and these are so rewarding I urge you to start creating. To compete in anything is a learning adventure. Whether you win or lose, you learn and are better for it. Judges try to do constructive critiques, sometimes that hurts, but you do gain from it. How many times have you thought you were finished and then seen something that was wrong. Painting or pottery is a wonderful way to go off in your own little world and let everything else go by. And then if you create a winner there is added joy. Even great artists make something they maybe could have improved upon. So I hope you all find time to start and finish up to three pieces of artwork for your Regional shows. Enjoy creating, enjoy all the benefits.

2018 SURVEY RESULTS

Your Board of Directors, to better serve membership, conducted an online survey earlier this year. Although we would have hoped for better response, we did get enough of a feel for where members would like to see Iowa Artists moving in our future. The surveys have been compiled, shared with the Board and we are moving in the direction indicated by the survey results.

Below please see what we have learned.

We asked members to indicate their interest in the topics they would like to see covered in future Workshops. This is what we learned:

18	Pencil (color & graphite)	13	Basic Drawing
25	Oil Paint	19	Color Theory
23	Acrylic Paint	19	Techniques
17	Pastel	18	Portraits
5	Fiber	19	Landscapes
7	Clay	17	Abstract
11	Glass	8	Three Dimensional
6	Wire	23	Watercolor

Vice President's Column

Welcome Kathy Strohl!

Good news for the Iowa Artist's Board and all our members. We have a new Vice-President. She is Kathy Strohl from Madrid, which is Region 5. She attended the Cloverwood Workshop this summer so some of you know her. Welcome to the Iowa Artist Board Kathy. Glad to have you."

FROM THE NEWSLETTER EDITORS:

This is your Newsletter and reflects the activities of Iowa Artists as a group and all of you as individuals. The Winter and Summer editions are primarily dedicated to the Regional and State Shows either preparing for (Winter) or reporting on (Summer) them.

We are always happy to publish other articles of interest to all of us and welcome submissions. Some categories would be: exhibitions of our art, galleries in our areas, achievements of our members, reviews of books or films or exhibits, etc.

You may have noticed that in recent years we have only produced two issues a year...that is primarily because we have not received enough content to make it worthwhile doing more. So.....please consider sending us content, we would love it.

A FEW HELPFUL DIRECTIONS ABOUT FACEBOOK

Please visit The Official Iowa Artists Facebook Page, and don't forget to "LIKE" it so you will automatically receive updates/posts about upcoming events, workshops, show results, etc. AND then whenever you see an event that's worth sharing, please hit the "SHARE" button. This will send the information to all your friends who can, in turn, share with their circle of friends. This easy free advertising for Iowa Artists has HUGE potential for reaching thousands of artists and will ensure the group continues to thrive.

Workshops

We asked members where they feel would be a good place to hold a Workshop. And here are the results by Region:

- Region 2: Clear Lake, Mason City
- Region 3: Decorah, Elkader
- Region 4: Denison, Storm Lake
- Region 5: Blanden Museum, 4-H Camp south of Boone, Des Moines, Clover Woods, LaPost, Iowa City, Des Moines Public Library, Iowa Central Community College, Historical Society, Perry
- Region 6: Ames, Clover Woods, CASA, Main Street, Cedar Rapids, Newton/Downtown
- Region 7: Herser Center, UNI, Waterloo, Cedar Falls, Cedar Rapids, Des Moines, Denver Library
- Region 8: Cedar Rapids, Dubuque, Clear Lake, Iowa City, Coralville
- Region 11: Corydon, LETs Center, Washington, Public Library, Art Domestique, Freight House, Chariton (operated by the Lucas County Arts Council)
- Region 12: Burlington Art Center, Fairfield

Pricing for Workshops was all over the spectrum. However, most responders thought that the Workshops should not be free to members. They suggest that a reasonable fee be paid by the member dependent upon the instructor's qualifications and that non-members would be welcome at a higher fee than members pay. They agreed that the fee charged should go to the presenter and be in line with their qualifications to lead a Workshop. They would like the Workshop offered to members first with a solid respond by date, then open to the public if there is room. They also felt that some members might qualify to lead a Workshop. And that out of state and individuals under 18 should be welcomed if there is room. Lastly, we asked members to tell us if there are other activities or events we should be looking at as member benefits. We did get back some very good ideas that will be pursued in the future, and the Board was congratulated on doing such a good job. (Which is always nice to hear.) The Board is open to member suggestions and we look forward to doing all we can for our members. This article appeared in the Summer 2018 Newsletter and is repeated here for anyone who may have missed it then. -- Flo Hayes

Future Workshops:

The summer workshop are what I hope are a continuing series of Workshops organized by Iowa Artists to promote art for our Members and as a recruitment tool to introduce Iowa Artists to other artists in the State. The Workshop Committee would love to have feedback from all members about the Workshops, ideas for ones in your Regions, along with other ideas to benefit Iowa Artists. We need volunteers to make these happen! My dream is to have a Workshop in the Fall in every Region every year that membership levels support the costs. I think in a short time the new members who sign up to take the workshops will support that cost. Iowa Artists has an incredible history of putting on Regional and State Shows for frugal amounts. I think we can do the same with the workshops and in doing so provide even more art experiences for members. -- Delayne Segar

Iowa Artists members can help us get there by volunteering! Contact Jeanine or DeLayne if you are interested in the workshop planning project.

ENTRY FORMS AND TAGS

(Note: You may enter only in the region where you live, but you may attend any regional show. Exhibit committee and gallery will treat artwork with care but will not be responsible for damage or loss. Nor will they be responsible for any items not picked up at the end of the show.)

Entry Blanks for Regional Shows

»Please send entries to regional shows by the pre-registration date listed in the Show Info. If you are not currently a member of Iowa Artists, the registration form must be accompanied by a $25 entry fee. Pre-show registered artwork will be listed in the show program and will have priority for available display space. Regional shows use the same jurying method as in the State show. All blue ribbon artwork is qualified for and expected at the State show.

Fill out completely, sign and remit this registration form to the person specified for your region:

Rules/Prospectus for Regional and State Shows

Regional Show:

The judge will select one piece from each 10 exhibited in the regional show for a first, second and third place ribbon. The judge will also select a number of honorable mentions at his/her discretion. Only artwork awarded a first place blue ribbon at the regional level shall advance to the state show.

In the event that a piece of artwork has received a first place ribbon and is later found to be unqualified for an Iowa Artists show, that piece may advance to the state show but will not be considered for an award.

State Show:

The judge will select the 3 highest awards in the following order: one piece of artwork to receive the Best of Show, one for the Richard Heggen Award, and one for the Doris Frandsen Award.

The judge will select one piece from each 10 exhibited and award a first, second and third place ribbon. honorable mentions will be awarded at the judge's discretion. All first place winners will receive a monetary award in addition to the ribbon. If included at regional and/or state show, a Peoples' Choice ribbon may be awarded according to popular vote of show attendees.

The judge at both regional and state shows will give a critique of artwork receiving awards and be available to answer entrants' questions concerning their entries.

Submitted Work

All entrants are responsible for delivery and pick-up of their own work. If shipped, artist must incur shipping cost and work must be suitably ready to hang or display. Works will be given all possible care in handling and storing, however, the exhibit committees and Iowa Artists cannot be responsible for loss or damage.

Entrants may not remove work before the show is over without permission from the show chairman. Photos of the ribbon groups are taken at the end of the critique period. Written permission is required when transporting artwork that is the property of another artist, Iowa Artists cannot be responsible for loss or damage.

Eligibility Current members of Iowa Artists (18 or older) qualify for a maximum of 3 entries each. Official entry forms need to be signed and submitted by the artist.

Acceptable Work All work must be original in concept and created by the artist. Reference photos must be of the artist's own taking or used by permission of the originator. No copyrighted material may be used as reference.
